TERMS
Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,
FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE
JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,
FROM THE COMMENCEMENT
Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,
INCLUDING
The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.
TERMS.
THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.
Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.
Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.
The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print many more than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.
Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.
☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume
Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in these rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.
 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

AT a Court of Common Pleas held at Union Town, for the county of Fayette, the fourth Monday of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, before the Judges of the same court, on the petition of John Wilson, praying that the act of Assembly, providing that the person of a debtor shall not be liable to imprisonment for debt after delivering up his estate for the use of his creditors, may be extended to him. The Court appoint the first day of next term, to hear the petitioner and his creditors, and order that he give his creditors public notice hereof, in Fenno's Philadelphia paper, and in Yundt and Brown's Baltimore paper, for one week, ending at least four weeks before the day of hearing; and that he also give to John Gillespie and Jacob Everhart personal notice in writing, to be served on them, at least fifteen days previous to the hearing. At September term, this order was continued to the first day of December term.
By the Court,
EPHRAIM DOUGLASS,
Prothonotary.

Foreign Intelligence.

LONDON, October 19.

Yesterday arrived the Hamburg mail which became due on Sunday. It contains the particulars of the late unfortunate actions in Switzerland, which we have the satisfaction of being able to assure our readers have been grossly exaggerated by gen. Massena and his Telegraphs. It is very remarkable that Chabron, with whose signature and authority the account of their victories is transmitted to the directory, (by the telegraph at Strasburg) should write at the same time, in the bulletin of the army, (see the article from Basle, Sept. 27) that the killed and wounded of the allies amounted to 8000 men. One account was calculated for those who might in some degree be judges of what had taken place; the other for the meridian of Paris.

Letters also have been received from col. Ramsay our commissioner with the Russian army in Switzerland, dated at Schaffhausen the 30th ultimo, of the most consolatory description. The defeat was far from being of the nature or extent which has been announced by Massena and Chabron. The loss of the Austrians was inconsiderable, except in the death of their general, Hotze, who was killed accidentally as he was reconnoitring too near to the lines of the enemy. That of the Russians did not exceed 3000 men, though the French made it amount to 20,000. Upon the death of general Hotze, the officer who succeeded to the command, thought it prudent to retire; the Russians, from no circumstance but the immense inferiority of numbers, were thrown into disorder. They rallied, however, at Schaffhausen, upon the 30th September, and along the border of the lake of Constance, the town of which name they retook, with an immense slaughter of the enemy. The telegraphic dispatch respecting marshal Suwarrow, is either an entire fabrication or a very gross exaggeration.—This general, so far from being engaged, without knowledge of the defeat at Zurich, had written pressing letters to the archduke, whose arrival at Schaffhausen is not only mentioned in private letters, but cannot be doubted from the concurrence of the intelligence from Manheim, and almost all the places on his route. The prince of Conde, with his army, consisting of 6000 men, has also effected a junction with the Russians at that city; so that the frontier to the Rhine, in Suabia, is not only perfectly secured, but the Russians and Germans are ready to advance again upon the enemy. A letter from Manheim of the 1st inst. states the loss of the French in the actions of the 24th and 25th ult. to amount to from 8 to 10,000 men. Allowing for exaggerations, there can be little doubt that it has more than equalled the acknowledged loss of the confederates. Without dissembling, therefore, the advantages obtained by general Massena, we are able to contemplate the situation of our allies, without the trepidation which, in spite of continued experience, the confident exaggerations of the enemy had inspired. The position of the French is by no means secure. The archduke, with the army of Conde, and the Russians, will push from Schaffhausen, and Suwarrow will march from the Grisons at the same time; or if any previous attack should be made upon him, he will fall back upon the impregnable country of the Tyrol, through which his artillery is hastening to join him. With the exception of the city of Zurich, it is probable both armies will soon resume their ancient positions.

We have also been relieved by this mail from the anxiety we entertained respecting the state of affairs in Piedmont, which turns out to have been most prosperous.

The Vienna Court Gazette relates some important advantages obtained there over general Championet on the 16th and 19th of the last month. The French lost between 2000 and 3000 men, and fell back to Pignerol; and Coni was to be besieged without delay by the conquerors. There appears to be some preparations at Venice for assembling a conclave. Some of the principal aspirants for the Tiara are arrived in that city.

Consolatory as it is, after the very disastrous events in Switzerland, to contemplate them under a less ominous and foreboding aspect, it is not without indignation that we can hear the causes of the evil attributed to cabinets, who have been the victims of the pernicious policy of a court which they can neither bring to an explanation, nor retain in the plain and open system of a single campaign. This court, it is confidently asserted, has instructed its public agents to throw the blame of the departure of the archduke upon the ministers of Russia and Great Britain. A stronger instance of bad faith can scarcely be imagined, but fortunately it is as strong a proof of the shame which the chancery of Vienna takes so justly to itself upon this calamitous occasion. The fact is precisely the converse of this statement; (which we know not how to believe can be authorized by the ministers of the emperor.) We exposed its falsity whilst we believed it the error of a journalist; avowed by a court, it is so far from our duty to recede, that we feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us to give it the more plain and strenuous denial.

We adverted, in our paper of yesterday, to an express which had arrived on the preceding day to some merchants in the city, bringing advices of some further considerable failures in Hamburg. We are concerned to say, that they are to an amount which must tend to shake commercial credit in every part of Europe.

VERONA, September 21.

Since the day before yesterday, considerable quantities of Russian baggage have passed through our city, going to Tyrol. The troops are marching straight for Switzerland, by another road.

September 26.

This day, about half past six in the morning, an ordinance arrived as courier, carrying a Ligurian stand of colors to his excellency baron de Riese, governor of this city, with the long wished for intelligence that the city of Genoa had capitulated on the 23d, and that, after his, the courier's departure, prince Rohan was to enter the city with his troops.

The same expresses add, that at the moment of his departure prince Rohan received information that Coni was capitulating, and that within three days, the Imperialists were to take possession of that place. Two hours after his arrival, the express departed from Verona for Vienna, with the Ligurian colors. His excellency has communicated to us the following particulars; that the capitulation consisted in one article only, viz. that the inhabitants requested of the victorious army to be exempted from plunder, which was granted them, from the justice of their deliverers. The French are retiring from all parts.—The colors mentioned to have been carried by this express was the standard of the Ligurian legion, in the head guard at Genoa. To this news, which is communicated to us by his excellency baron de Riese, we add more official intelligence, coming from the first channel of correspondence at the head quarters at Savighano, dated the 21st of September.

SAVIGLIANO, September 21.

Yesterday the Imperialists took the city of Pignerol by storm, after a short, but obstinate resistance by the French, who are retreating from thence. Turin will now be relieved from its fear of an invasion, which was so often dreaded, from the short distance of the enemy, by the occupation of that place.

VIENNA, September 27.

From the Court Gazette.

Since the fall of Tortona the enemy seems to have given up all farther attempts to force his entry from the Genoese mountains into Piedmont; the Imperial army has begun its march on the 13th, from the camp near Alessandria to Bresciano; on the 14th it proceeded to Asti, and on the 15th to Alba.

The states of Italy having thrown off the French yoke, and destroyed republican-democracy, have now resumed their former denominations. The kingdom of Naples, which with other Italian countries, in ancient and modern times, has suffered so much from French invasions, now recommences to enjoy its former state of tranquility. The latest accounts from that kingdom, dated the 21st of last month, say, that the partisans of jacobinism have vanished; but that 220 of them had been conveyed to the islands for examination and punishment. Such persons on the other hand, as remained faithful to their king and constitution, have been rewarded. Cardinal Russo was presented with the abbey of St. Sophia, and a yearly revenue of between 8 and 9000 dollars, to be enjoyed by his family to the latest posterity. He has also received an estate of near 15,000 dollars revenue, with the liberty to bequeath it to some relation. He has also been appointed Stadtholder general of the whole kingdom, with a salary of 2000 dollars. The Cardinal's brother, a captain on half pay, who commanded the Calabrians under him, has been promoted to the rank of colonel, with a salary of 3000 dollars. The chevalier Micheraux, who re-conquered the province of Puglia, with 500 Russians, has also received the rank of Colonel, with 3000 dollars revenue. The bishop of Capaccio, who conducted the Cardinal's advanced guard to Naples, has been made archbishop of Naples, in the room of cardinal Zurlo, banished into a convent. The bishop of Policastro, who, in March, collected 14,000 men against the French, prevented their entering Calabria, and defeated them in different places, has been made vicar general, with a commission to restore the former order of things in the provinces of Trani, Isauria, and Montefusco.

SCHAFFHAUSEN, Sept. 27.

On the 25th, at two in the morning we heard the most tremendous cannonade, which continued the whole of yesterday and part of the night. Massena attacked near Zurich, and met for a considerable time with the most obstinate resistance. At first, the Russians are said to have taken Mount Uetli by storm To day, we hear, the French were at Kloten. Last night, and this morning a great number of wounded Russians arrived here, and were afterwards conveyed to their hospital in the nunnery of St. Catharine's valley, about six miles distance.—The French had also a great number of killed and wounded. Yesterday a regiment of Cossacks arrived here from Englisau; four squadrons of Russian cuirassiers and dragoons also marched thro' here, proceeding towards Zurich. The Titow chasseurs were greatly exposed to the enemy's fire. The fate of Zurich is dreadful; great fears are likewise entertained for Winterthur. We are quiet here, the more so as numerous reinforcements are expected from Germany; the corps of Prince Conde will also arrive in a few days.

MEMMINGEN, Sept. 28.

All vessels, horses, &c. have been put in requisition at Constance, to be employed in transporting baggage, &c. The corps of Conde has received orders to join the army of Switzerland without delay. We hear, that the brave field marshal Suwarrow is advancing, fighting, across mount St. Gothard.

MANHEIM, October 1.

On receiving the fatal news from Switzerland, the Imperial army under the Archduke Charles quitted our neighbourhood precipitately, after a stay of eleven days, to hasten to the assistance of Switzerland, leaving only a small body of troops behind.—A few hours previous to his departure, the archduke received dispatches from field marshal Suwarrow, in the Grison country, and from the neighbourhood of Zurich.—Yesterday the head quarters were already at Durlach.

Lieutenant Pizzenberg, who is arrived here as courier from the general of cavalry, Melas, brings intelligence, that that general having received several accounts that the enemy were assembling in considerable force in the valley of the Stura, previously detached general Gottersheim with seven battalions of infantry, and a regiment of dragoons against the avenues of that valley, to take a proper position between Fossano and Savigliano, to observe from thence every movement hostile.

On the 14th, the enemy actually attacked that general's chain of advanced posts, particularly his right wing, who however made use of his knowledge of the ground, and of his experience as an able commander of advanced posts, so that the enemy found it impossible to obtain possession of the two important posts of Fossano and Savigliano.—Meanwhile, however the enemy received reinforcements, and had already increased to 15,000 men in this quarter; in consideration of this, and of the ground being disadvantageous to him, for intersected by hedges, where gen. Gottesheim, (the enemy being superior in numbers) might easily have been surrounded, he determined to draw closer to the army, and quitted Savigliano the same evening, and Fossano about midnight. Under these circumstances, the army had arrived in the camp near Bra on the 16th; and though there was no reason to expect that the enemy would be daring enough to attack the army in this position, with the corps above mentioned, yet his assembling in the valley of Stura, and the probability of being joined by the troops at Pignerol, and by those which were advancing from the Genoese against Piedmont, attracted the attention of Gen. Melas, who resolved, before the enemy could gain time to execute their plans, to attack this isolated part of their forces, which had advanced too far.

Accordingly, a sufficient detachment from the army was marched in 2 columns, one of which was ordered against Savigliano on the high road; the other against Fossano. The latter was commanded by gen. Kray; the former by gen. Melas. The columns left the camp at 11 o'clock, and did not arrive at their place of destination before five in the evening, when they immediately attacked the enemy. The regiments Furstenberg and Stuart led the attack, and did every thing that could be expected of brave and undaunted troops.

The enemy's defence was ably conducted; and not before major Brusch, by order of the gen. of cavalry, with a battalion of Stuart, and a detachment of Lobkowitz dragoons, attacked the enemy's flank, they were thrown into confusion, and fled towards the Maira, leaving behind them two pieces of cannon. The enemy's left wing, however, still making some resistance, the battalion of Schassinati grenadiers was ordered to advance against them, drums beating, without firing a shot. This battalion perfectly fulfilling its orders, the enemy were beaten in every point, forced to retreat, and the post at Savigliano was re-taken. Night prevented their pursuit. The general of cavalry received information, that general Kray had likewise been successful in his attack upon the enemy, who quitted the post of Fossano during the night, which was taken possession of in the morning by our troops.

The enemy's loss in killed and wounded amounted to more than 1000, and about 900 prisoners; the number of the latter would have been more considerable, had not night favoured their retreat. Our loss amounts to about 92 killed, 528 wounded, and 63 missing—in all 683 men. [Here the general praises several of the officers who distinguished themselves.]

Almost at the same time (on the 13th) the enemy advanced with a considerable column from Pignerol, against a small corps of our troops at Airasco, consisting of the 7th regiment of hussars and some infantry, whose advanced posts were driven back. The enemy proceeded as far as Scalenga, and formed their front near the high road: Colonel Sclauroth, the commander of the above mentioned regiment of hussars, as well as of the whole post, suffered them to advance within cannot shot, when he directed a vigorous fire from six pieces of artillery upon them, attacking at the same time their left wing and rear so successfully with his hussars, that they were entirely driven back. The action lasted till night, when the colonel was enabled to re-occupy his former position.

This expedition, in which the enemy lost nearly 400 men in killed and wounded, is said to have been directed by gen. Championet in person. We have taken prisoners a captain, a lieutenant, and about forty privates. Our own loss is inconsiderable, but that of the enemy must have been very great, on account of our well directed grape shot fire, and the brave conduct of our cavalry. [Here also the names of those officers who distinguished themselves are mentioned.

The name of Mr. Craik should have been inserted in the list of noes in our paper of yesterday. See proceedings of Congress.

The Delaware sloop of war, capt. Baker, has recently captured a French privateer of 10 guns and 75 men, and sent her into a port in the West-Indies.

Commerce, which has so long battened on the miseries of the political world, seems at length about to come in for its share of the general disaster. Letters by the last packet bring accounts of several failures in London, and it is said, she has brought back protested bills to a very large amount.

A Frenchman of modern times, is the general Lunatic of the age. In whatever he undertakes, his volatility soon kindles into insanity. If he talks of government he raves, of liberty he raves—let him talk of what he will he raves. Even in money-making, he is a complete enragé; witness one of the tribe, who in writing a letter on business, instead of his name, signs, 1½—2½ and 3 per cent a month."

It is said, that his Excellency, the Honourable Thomas M'Kean, Doctor of Pennsylvania and Governor of Laws, was seized with an apoplectic fit at Downing's Town, county of Chester. The cursed patriotic air of that sound county, is supposed to have disagreed with the perturbed state of his blood.

Sancho on his departure for and at his return from his late expedition, rode on Horseback. Strange to tell, the animal displayed manifest symptoms of inquietude;—whether from a consciousness of the iniquitous burthen which he bore on his back, or from a desire to reclaim the equal rights of nature and of beasts, or from some latent spice of federalism, the acutest physiologists have been hitherto at a loss to decide.

The proffered affection of our sweet sister France may remind the love sick Irishmen of our country, of lines from "Gramachre":

At a meeting of a number of the citizens of the city of Philadelphia, pursuant to public notice, on Tuesday the 24th December, at the house of John Dunwoody, for the purpose of considering the propriety of addressing the Legislature in favor of an election of Electors for a President and Vice President of the United States by Districts; it was resolved that the following address be circulated for the signatures of the inhabitants of the city of Philadelphia.

HENRY PRATT, Chairman.
CHARLES W. HARE, Secretary.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the state of Pennsylvania.

The Memorial of the Subscribers, Citizens of Philadelphia,

Respectfully represents,

THAT your memorialists are informed that a bill is now pending in your honorable Houses, making provision for dividing the state into Districts, in the choice of Electors of a President and Vice President of the United States;

That as your memorialists are persuaded, that the measure is dictated by sound policy and a just regard to the fair and equitable rights of every portion of the state, and founded on the true principle of equal representation, by giving each man a better opportunity of selecting, from his own neighborhood, characters, with whose talents and integrity he is personally acquainted, than by the diffuse mode hitherto practised, which subjected many citizens either to the necessity of voting for men wholly unknown to them,—of giving an unavailing vote,—or of waving their right of suffrage;—embarrassments, incompatible with the genius of a free republic, and which it cannot be the wish of an enlightened Legislature to impose on the people.

Your memorialists, therefore, request, that you will give the subject your deliberate consideration, and pass the law for dividing the state into districts in the choice of Electors for a President and Vice President of the United States.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 30.

Arrived on Saturday, schr. Fox, Stevenson, from Cape Francois.

Captain Stevenson informs, that twenty four hours previous to his sailing (30th ult.) an insurrection at Jean Rabel took place. The insurgents were headed by one of Rigaud's generals, who having been defeated, and driven into the mountains had unexpectedly collected a large force with which he made a sortie and gained possession of the fort of Jean Rabel. On the arrival of this news at the Cape, a general requisition took place, and about 800 men were immediately sent off for the relief of the fort.—Capt. S. also confirms the melancholy accounts which have heretofore been published of the unfortunate situation of that island.

STATE OF DELAWARE.

Secretary's Office, 24th Dec. 1799.

AFFECTED with the liveliest sensibility at the loss which the people of the United States have sustained by the death of our illustrious and beloved fellow citizen, Lieutenant General George Washington, the late President, the Governor of this State wishes that all possible respect should be paid to his memory, for the many eminent services which he has rendered to his country. And, although a grateful remembrance will be ever had of those virtues and exalted talents which so conspicuously distinguished him in a long series of public duties, yet the general sentiment on this distressing occasion, pointing to some particular expression of the high sense which all feel of our loss, and the Governor uniting in the public sympathy;—It is therefore recommended to all civil officers of the State to wear crape, on the left arm, below the elbow, as mourning, for three months.

Secretary of the State of Delaware.

CINCINNATI.

At a meeting of the Pennsylvania State Society of the Cincinnati, held at the State House, in Philadelphia, on the 21st of December, 1799,

BRIGADIER GEN. MACPHERSON
IN THE CHAIR,

The following Resolutions were moved by Major JACKSON, and UNANIMOUSLY adopted:

Resolved, That, in veneration of the exalted virtues, patriotism, and public services of our late most excellent, beloved, and ever to be lamented President General, George Washington,—and as a tribute of the deepest sorrow, and most affectionate attachment to his endeared and illustrious memory, the Members of this Society will wear mourning, connected with the Badge of the Society, during six months.

Resolved, That a strip of black Ribband passing along the centre of the Ribband of the Order, be added on this occasion.

The following resolutions were moved by gen. Macpherson and unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That Major Jackson be requested to prepare and pronounce an Eulogium on the character of General Washington, embracing a summary review of his Civil and Military services; and that the same be delivered before this Society on Saturday the 22d day of February next, at one o'clock, P. M. at such place as the Standing Committee to whom the arrangements of the day are referred, shall determine.

Resolved, That the President of the United States and his family—the Vice President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Members of both Houses of Congress, the Heads of Departments, the Judiciary, and such other officers of the General and State Governments as may then be in Philadelphia, be respectfully invited to honor the Society with their presence on the occasion.

PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING AN
HISTORY OF THE LIFE
OF THE ILLUSTRIOUS
GEORGE WASHINGTON,
Commander in Chief of the American Armies during our revolutionary war with Great Britain, first President of the United States, and since, Lieutenant General of the Army.
BY JOSEPH SCOTT,
Author of the Modern Geographical Dictionary, in four volumes octavo.

OF the various methods which different writers pursue in order to convey useful knowledge to mankind, Biography stands confessedly among the first. There is none more interesting—none more instructive and entertaining. The histories of distinguished heroes, who have, by their exalted virtues, and noble and splendid actions, been the principal means of redeeming their respective countries from the corroding hand of tyranny, have in all ages been considered the most entertaining, instructive, and important to mankind. They afford example; and example is more powerful than precept. It strengthens, by a plain and easy mode of analogical reasoning, the principles of the timid, determines and fixes those that are wavering, and ultimately lays the basis for that harmony and coincidence of sentiment among the citizens; from which only, a nation can hope to derive rank, consequence and stability.

Impressed with lively sentiments of the eminent virtues of that distinguished HERO and PATRIOT, the history of whose life I have undertaken to write; it was not till after much reflection I resolved on issuing these proposals. —The following considerations induced me to this; First, having obtained in the course of an extensive correspondence, with many gentlemen of talents and information, a large stock of original materials concerning the life of this Illustrious Citizen; to give form and body to these, in the manner of history, will preserve many important things that otherwise would most probably be lost. Secondly, as many of the most interesting transactions of his life, since he resigned his commission as Commander in chief of our revolutionary armies, are very imperfectly recorded, and little understood; yet the greater part of them being fresh in the memories of many, this must be the fittest time to embody them; before a succession of objects, which every day brings forth, wears off the minuter circumstances. There are many of these circumstances important and interesting; as it is universally acknowledged, that great actions, like immense rivers, flow from small beginnings.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Life of General Washington will contain nearly 400 pages octavo, printed on fine paper, and in a style of elegance equal to any work that has appeared from an American press.

II. It will be embellished with a striking likeness of the General, executed by one of the first artists.

III. Subscribers' names will be annexed, as patrons.

IV. Each subscriber is to pay two dollars, one half on subscribing, the remainder on the delivery of the work.

☞ Subscriptions in this city are received at No. 297 Arch street, next door to the north west corner of Eighth street.

Just Published,

A COMPENDIOUS SYSTEM

Of Practical Surveying and dividing of land; briefly comprized under the following heads, viz.

TWENTY-THREE Geometrical Definitions, eleven Geometrical Poſitions, exhibiting to view the properties and depeſidencies of triangles; followed by problems and examples preparatory to Trigonometry, heights and diſtances. Then fifteen problems and examples neceſſarily preſions to calculating a Survey ſucceeded by ſeven ſurveys, the area of the four firſt is found geometrically, and of the whole number by difference of latitude and departure, ſhewing how to take an inacceſſible boundary, find the bearing and diſtance of the cloſing line without running it, alſo the diſtances to an inacceſſible corner from the two adjacent corners, followed by examples of offſets on to winding ſtreams of water, ſhewing how to aſcertain the area without the trouble of meaſuring the windings with chains and inſtruments—a crooked water courſe ſtraitened, and a quantity of land on each ſide found by theſe offsets.

Ten examples of dividing land, with many ſub-diviſions, leading into the moſt critical circumſtances that can occur in practice; an example of Interſections, and an example ſhewing how the bearings of a field may be truly taken where the needle is attracted, altho' the attraction may vary in quantity and denomination at every ſtation; examples ſhewing the method of meaſuring by the chain only. All the rules are clear and explicit. This work contains the tables of difference of latitude and departure and of logarithms.

Orders ſent to Joſeph and James Cruckſhank, Bookſellers, No. 87, High-ſtreet, Philadelphia, Bonſall and Niles, 173, Market Street, Baltimore, or the Subſcriber in Wilmington (Del.) will be duly attended to.

Thoſe who have the care of ſubſcription papers for this work, are raqueſted to ſend their reſpective numbers as ſoon as poſſible, to whom the quota's will be ſent agreeably to the propoſals.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States' army, are to be regiſtered and located,—the ſubſcribers have explored that tract of land on which thoſe warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpoſe of offering their ſervices as locaters.

We take the liberty of ſuggeſting, "that weare at leaſt as well acquainted with the ſituation, quality of the ſoil, &c. of the different townſhips in the aforeſaid tract, as any other perſon:" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by obſerving, that WILLIAM C. SCHENK aſſiſted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he conſiderably traverſed that tract: he alſo aſſiſted in ſurveying and laying it off into townſhips, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately ſpent between two and three months, with ſeveral aſſiſtants, in particularly examining the different townſhips and quarter townſhips; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole diſtrict.—We now offer our ſervices to the public, as Locaters, with aſſurances that we will locate every perſons warrants intruſted to us to the beſt advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our ſervices we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract, of four thouſand acres or more, for one perſon or firm; the land to be taken in a ſquare, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal ſixth part, in caſh or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount leſs than four thouſand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to tranſact this buſineſs. Any perſon wiſhing to ſatisfy himſelf farther, will pleaſe to call on us, by letter, (poſtage paid) or otherwiſe; when due attention will be paid, and ſuch vouchers may be ſeen as we have to offer, which we hope will be ſatisfactory.

WILLIAM C. SCHENCK.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9, 1799. eow.

TO BE SOLD,

BY THE SUBSCRIBERS,

NINE undivided tenth parts of a tract of LAND, in the State of Georgia; either together or in ſuch parts as may ſuit the purchaſer. The whole tract is bounded as follows, viz. beginning on the Miſſiſippi river, where the latitude of thirty two degrees, forty-nine minutes, forty ſeconds north of the Equator interſects the ſame river; thence running along the ſame parallel of latitude a due eaſt courſe to the Tom Bigby river; thence up the middle of the ſaid Tom Bigby river to the place where the latitude thirty-two degrees, fifty-nine minutes, twenty ſeconds north of the equator interſects the ſame; thence a due weſt courſe on the ſame parallel of latitude to the Miſſiſſip i river; thence down the middle of the ſaid Miſſiſſippi river to the place of beginning; together with all the privileges, immunities and appurtenances thereof, including all iſlands within the ſaid bounds, and containing at leaſt One Million acres, probably more. The premiſes if not before diſpoſed of by private ſale, will be ſold by Public Vendue, on Thurſday the twenty-firſt day of November next, at eleven o'clock, A. M. at Concert-Hall, kept by Mr. JAMES VILA in Boſton. For further particulars and terms, apply to either of the ſubſcribers

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

March 11th, 1799.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

Purſuant to the act of Congreſs paſſed on the 1ſt day of June, one thouſand, ſeven hundred and ninety ſix, entitled "an act regulating the grants of land appropriated for military ſervices, and for the ſociety of United Brethren for propagating the goſpel among the Heathen;" and the act ſupplementary to the ſaid recited act paſſed on the ſecond day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety nine——to wit:

I.

THAT the tract of Land herein after deſcribed, namely, "beginning at the North Weſt corner of the ſeven ranges of townſhips, and running thence fifty miles due ſouth, along the weſtern boundary of the ſaid ranges;—thence due Weſt to the Main Branch of the Scioto river; thence up the Main Branch of the ſaid river to the place where the Indian boundary line croſſes the ſame;—thence along the ſaid boundary line to the Tuſcaroras branch of the Muſkingum river at the croſſing place above Fort Lawrence; thence down the ſaid river, to the point where a line run due weſt from the place of beginning, will interſect the ſaid river; thence along the line ſo run to the place of beginning;" has been divided into townſhips of five miles ſquare, and fractional parts of townſhips; and that plats and ſurveys of the ſaid townſhips and fractional parts of townſhips are depoſited in the offices of the Regiſter of the Treaſury and Surveyor General, for the inſpection of all perſons concerned.

II.

The holders of ſuch warrants as have been or ſhall be granted for military ſervices performed during the late war, are required to preſent the ſame to the Regiſter of the Treaſury, at ſome time prior to the twelfth day of February in the year, one thouſand eight hundred, for the purpoſe of being regiſtered; No regiſtry will however be made of any leſs quantity than a quarter townſhip, or four thouſand acres.

III.

The priority of location of the warrants which may be preſented and regiſtered in manner aforeſaid, prior to the 12th day of February in the year one thouſand eight hundred, will immediately after the ſaid day, be determined by lot, in the mode preſcribed by the act firſt recited.

IV.

The holders of regiſtered warrants, ſhall on Monday the 17th day of February, in the year 1800, in the order of which the priority of location ſhall be determined by lots aforeſaid, perſonally, or by their agents, deſignate in writing at the office of the Regiſter of the Treaſury, the particular quarter townſhips elected by them reſpectively, and ſuch of the ſaid holders as ſhall not deſignate their locations on the ſaid day, ſhall be poſtponed in locating ſuch warrants to all other holders of regiſtered warrants

V.

The holders of warrants for military ſervices ſufficient to cover one or more quarter townſhips or tracts of four thouſand acres each; ſhall, at any time after Monday the 17th day of February, 1800 and prior to the firſt day of January, 1802, be allowed to regiſter the ſaid warrants in manner aforeſaid, and forthwith to make locations therefor on any tract or tracts of land not before located.

VI.

All warrants or claims for lands on account of military ſervices, which ſhall not be regiſtered and located before the firſt day of January, 1802, are by the ſupplementary act of Congreſs herein before recited, paſſed on the ſecond day of March, 1799, declared to be forever barred.

Given under my hand at Philadelphia, the day and year above mentioned.

SCHUYLKILL

PERMANENT BRIDGE.

For the information of the Stockholders in the company, incorporated for the erection of a Permanent Bridge over the river Schuylkill, and others of our fellow citizens who are deſirous that this uſeful undertaking ſhould ſucceed, it is thought expedient and proper, by the Preſident and Directors of that company to ſtate the preſent ſituation of its affairs.

THE company was incorporated on the 27th day of April, 1798; and by a clauſe in the law authorizing this incorporation, the legiſlature may reſume the rights, &c. granted to the company, if they do not "proceed to carry on the work" in two years, and complete the bridge in five years, after they had been incorporated.

As ſoon as practicable, the company proceeded to the choice of the officers required by law; and the Preſident and Directors have been conſtant in their endeavours to encreaſe the number of ſubſcribers to the ſtock. The number of ſhares ſubſcribed when the company was organized, was 5216 With all the exertions made ſince, it is now only 5638; though of the 15,000 contemplated by law, 12,000 (at ten dollars each) are allotted for the active capital of the company.

As the public opinion, coinciding with that of the Preſident and Directors, appeared to be fixed on the ſcite at the weſt end of Market ſtreet, it was deemed a primary object to obtain from the corporation of the city, their right to the ferry at that place. Negociations were accordingly commenced for the purpoſe.—Theſe ended in a contract with the city corporation, to the following effect—

1. 5000 dollars to be paid to the city corporation when the ſubſcriptions to the bridge ſtock amount to the value of 11,000 ſhares—a like ſum in four months thereafter with intereſt—5000 dollars further in eight months—and the like ſum in twelve months, with intereſt.

2. The city corporation take, as payment for 20,000 dollars, (to make the whole conſideration monies 40,000 dollars) two thouſand ſhares in the bridge ſtock, on terms detailed in the contract.

3. The 11,000 ſhares being ſubſcribed, and the firſt inſtalmene of the purchaſe monies paid, the right to the ferry and its enumerated appurtenances, with certain parts of the ſcite and the brick tavern, to be conveyed to the bridge company, on their mortgaging the premiſes, in the contract mentioned, for 15,000 dollars, the reſidue of the pecuniary payments, with intereſt.

4 If the erection is not completed in the period fixed, or which may be fixed by the legiſlature, the property and rights are to re veſt in the corporation of the city, on terms preſcribed in the contract; which contains other ſubordinate arrangements, too lengthy to be herein particularly detailed.

The ſum agreed to be given was unavoidable. We found the councils of the city inflexibly determined not to take leſs. We deemed it eligible to make ſome ſacrifices (if any we have made) to avoid competitions injurious and embarraſſing, both in the commencement and progreſs of our intended enterprize.

Warned by experience of the fatal conſequences of beginning works, requiring extenſive pecuniary ſupport, without a certainty of its being within our power, we agreed to that part of the contract requiring 11,000 ſhares to be actually ſubſcribed, before it takes effect.—We do not deſire to conceal our indiſpoſition to embark in this undertaking, until the number of ſhares ſubſcribed ſhall, at leaſt, equal that required by this contract. Nor ſhall we engage in the buſineſs until the inſtalments directed by law ſhall be in the treaſurer's hands, to an amount ſufficient to encourage us to begin the work, with ſolid proſpects of complying with our engagements to thoſe with whom we may contract.

We have received a number of plans in conſequence of our advertiſement for the purpoſe, but have made no ſelection. We ſhall prefer that which unites œconomy with ſtability, and accommodation to all circumſtances attached to the place of erection. The ſcite muſt be fixed before the plan is adopted It muſt be perceived that a deficiency of ſubſcriptions to our ſtock prevents our obtaining the ſcite proviſionally contracted for, which, however expenſive it may appear, is certainly the moſt eligible and productive.

We have not called for the ſecond inſtalment, from thoſe who have already ſubſcribed, becauſe we do not think ourſelves warranted, from preſent appearances, to commence the work. The monies already paid (one dollar on each ſhare ſubſcribed, deducting our neceſſary expenditures, which will appear in our accounts) lie uſeleſs to us in the bank. They muſt remain inactive, till by further ſubſcriptions, we are enabled to proceed in the execution of our truſt; as we have no authority to employ them for any other purpoſes, than thoſe directed by the act of incorporation. Our minutes and accounts will be laid before the ſtockholders, at the next meeting for the annual election of officers. They are always open for the inſpection of the members of the company.

All the books and forms required for the progreſs of the buſineſs are prepared; and we are otherwiſe compleatly ready to proceed, if the moſt eſſential requiſite were in our poſſeſſion. It will be ſeen that there is a deficiency of 5362 ſhares to give validity to our contract with the city corporation, and to juſtify us in commencing the work

We have a ſtrong perſuaſion, founded on accurate information of the product of bridges in other ſtates, and calculations of profit here, that inveſtments in our ſtock will be equal, in point of emolument, with thoſe made in any other permanent funds in this city. The company may divide, in biennial dividends, 15 per cent. annually during twenty-five years; and if the bridge be made free, they are to receive its value on a fair eſtimate—The Charles River Bridge near Boſton (1500 feet long and 42 wide) coſt 50,000 dollars, and yields from 20 to 24 per cent. clear of all expences. The bridge at Cambridge (7000 feet long and 42 wide) coſt 80,000 dollars; and yields from 12 to 14 per cent. Some deductions have been made, to remedy defects in the timber originally uſed, but theſe expences will no longer be neceſſary. Immenſe bodies of ice aſſail theſe bridges without injury—Neither of them are better ſituated to command roll, than that we contemplate over the Schuylkill, which is only 400 feet wide.

Whether we ſhall proceed or not, depends on the diſpoſition of our fellow citizens to encourage the undertaking. We cannot help ſoftering the flattering expectation, that, from motives of public ſpirit and private emolument, we ſhall yet be ſupported in our ardent wiſhes to complete an erection, eminently promotive of the intereſts, as well as the credit of our city.

The ſtock being in itſelf inviting, and the object of great public utility, as well to ourſelves as to our poſterity, we more confidently ſolicit ſubſcriptions.

By order,

RICHARD PETERS,

President.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the ſhort and pleaſant road of Buſſleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populouſneſs of the country through which it paſſes, with ſundry other advantages, which render it ſo far preferable to the Old Road through Briſtol, Brunſwick, &c. long ago ſuggeſted the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the preſent year, a minute ſurvey of it has been taken, and its ſuperiority over the Old Road, both in winter and ſummer, has been clearly aſcertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the croſſing is performed with great ſafety and in leſs than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is ſeveral miles ſhorter than the old road, but this is amongſt the leaſt of its advantages, becauſe daily experience proves to us, that diſpatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodneſs of the road and the levelneſs of the country, and, in theſe reſpects, the New Road is, beyond all compariſon, the beſt. It preſents none of thoſe rocky hills, which render the Old Road ſo fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The ſoil, too, for the greater part, is ſuch as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little duſt in ſummer, which circumſtance, added to the beauty of the country, and a conſiderable proportion of ſhade, muſt always render travelling in the latter ſeaſon peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure ſtarts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, oppoſite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth ſtreet. It goes through Frankford to Buſſleton, where it ſtops to Breakfaſt; from Buſſletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millſtone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to Lodge. The next morning it ſtops at Springfield to breakfaſt, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it ſtarts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For ſeats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee houſe, to A. Mathieu, corner of Naſſau and John ſtreets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich ſtreet, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad ſtreet.

Fare for paſſengers, Five Dollars.

Way paſſengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each paſſenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a paſſenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With reſpect to packages ſent on without paſſengers, the proprietors preſume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of ſtages, they think muſt meet with general approbation, They pledge themſelves to make good every package on the following conditions. The perſon who delivers the package at the office ſhall ſee it entered in the ſtage-book, for which entry he ſhall pay 6 cents; he will then ſtate the value of the package, and pay (excluſive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as inſurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for inſtance, if he eſtimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar inſurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few perſons it is preſumed, will diſlike this regulation; it will, however, be optionable with every one to avail himſelf of this ſecurity or not. But the proprietors think it right to ſtate very expliſitly, that they will be reſponſible for the ſafe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an inſurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the diſtribution of the route, the greateſt care has bren taken to fix on ſuch places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the paſſengers at the moſt reaſonable rates The ſtages are well equipped furniſhed with fleet and ſteady horſes, and committed to the care of intelligent ſober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themſelves live at the different towns and villages where the ſtages will ſtop, ſo that the conduct of the perſons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care alſo to ſee that the paſſengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no ſort of chicanery or inſolence is practiſed upon them; in ſhort, they have ſpared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very beſt line of ſtages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every paſſenger has found the road to ſurpaſs very far all that has been ſaid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns ſpoken of with the higheſt ſatisfaction.
